
JANUARY 18th, 1805.

Read the first and second time, and committed to a committee of the whole House, on Monday next.

A B I L L,

MAKING appropriations for the support of the Military establishment of the United States, for the year one thousand eight hundred and five.

1 Be it enacted, by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That 3 for defraying the expense of the Military establishment of the 4 United States, for the year one thousand eight hundred and five,
5 for the Indian department, and for the expense of fortifications, 6 arsenals, magazines, and armories, the following sums be, and the 7 same hereby are respectively appropriated, that is to say :

8 For the pay of the army of the United States,

- 9 For forage,
- 10 For the subsistence of the officers of the army and corps of 11 engineers,
- 12 For the subsistence of non-commissioned officers, musicians,
13 and privates,
- 14 For clothing,
- 15 For bounties and premiums,
- 16 For the medical and hospital department,
- 17 For camp equipage, fuel, tools, expense of transportation, and 18 other contingent expenses of the war department,
- 19 For fortifications, arsenals, magazines, and armories,
- 20 For purchasing maps, plans, books, and instruments for the 21 war department, and military academy,
- 22 For the pay and subsistence of the commandants, in Louisiana,

23 For the Indian department,

1 SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the several appropri-
2 ations, herein before made, shall be paid and discharged, first, out
3 of any balance remaining unexpended of former appropriations 4 for the support of the military establishment, and secondly, out of 5 any monies in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.